Must-does for your programmes

Draw inspiration from our 6 themes, and prepare your one-day excursions and longer.

RELIEVE ITS PAST

A morning to visit the Mémorial de Caen for a comprehensive insight into the story of the Allied Landings in Normandy and their consequences. In the afternoon, take a heritage tour of the same beaches, as far as Pointe du Hoc, a symbol of the fierce combat waged in the name of freedom. Delve into the emotion of the many sites of remembrance that commemorate these crucial pages in history: the Normandy American Cemetery and Memorial in Colleville-sur-Mer, the Arromanches 360 cinema, the Civilians in Wartime Memorial in Falaise, the Juno Beach Centre in Courseulles-sur-Mer, the Battle of Normandy Memorial in Bayeux, etc.

FOLLOW IN THE FOOTSTEPS OF ITS FAMOUS DUKE, WILLIAM THE CONQUEROR

Born around 1027 in Falaise, south of Caen, the Duke of Normandy who became King of England lived a fascinating life. Follow his trail through a tour of 3 emblematic towns: the morning is devoted to a discovery of his childhood castle in Falaise and of the famous tapestry that tells the story of his conquest of England, in Bayeux. Afternoon in Caen and tour of the castle and the two abbeys.

STROLL THROUGH THE REGION'S DELIGHTFUL PARKS AND GARDENS

An ode to nature, over a day tour including several of the following sites. At Jardins du Pays d'Auge, in Cambremer, you'll be taken round a former nursery set out in 27 different features, while the Canon gardens demonstrate the transition between the ordered classicism of the French garden style and the irregular composition of the British style. The landscaped gardens of Vendeuvre castle are also interesting, with their contrasting atmospheres and themed layout. The gardens of the Château de Brécý, where perspective is the belle of the ball and the 4 increasingly wide terraces offer rhythm to the garden. The Colline aux Oiseaux in Caen, in turn, offers 17 hectares of floral parkland, the highlights of which are a vast rose garden and a multitude of themed gardens.

TASTE ITS GASTRONOMY

Destination the Graindorge cheese dairy in Livarot (south of Lisieux). You will learn the secrets of livarot and pont-l'évêque cheese making. Then head for the Pays d'Auge or Bessin, where a host of calvados distilleries await you to offer you an insight into all the facets of our Normandy apples. Calvados, cider, pommeau... are offered pride of place. And don't forget our oysters, scallops, 'andouille' chitterling sausage over a gourmet tour of our local producers, always delighted to share their age-old traditional skills.

SUCCUMB TO THE SHEER BEAUTY OF ITS CASTLES

Calvados is the 3rd-ranking French area for the number of listed sites or listed historic monuments. There are around 1,000! You'll discover wonders such as the majestic castles of Bessin: don't miss the Château de Fontaine-Henry, boasting the highest rooftops in France, or the splendid Château de Colombières surrounded by a genuine moat. And, in the Pays d'Auge, the striking Château de Saint-Germain-de-Livet is sure to enchant you! The list goes on: the very classical Domaine de Pontécoulant, in Swiss Normandy, the traditional Manoir des Evêques on the Côte Fleurie, the wonderful church of Sainte-Catherine in Honfleur...

TAKE TIME TO CONTEMPLATE!

The religious town of Lisieux is France's most important spiritual spot after Lourdes. A day devoted to the symbolic sites associated with the story of St. Thérèse of Lisieux. Visit the Lisieux Basilica and marvel at its jaw-dropping beauty; go and see the Carmelite nunnery and the Maison des Buissonnets, childhood home of St. Thérèse of Lisieux, whose holy precepts are followed the world over. Further west in Calvados, you'll find another gem: the Notre-Dame de la Délivrande Basilica, in Douvres-La Délivrande.

LA FOLLETIERE- ABENON CRESS FARM

A delve into white water cress growing in the company of Calvados's last cress farmer, in its last cress farm. Just a stone's throw from the source, you will learn all you ever wanted to know about cress growing over a visit in a natural setting. Visit lasts 1 hour. This visit can be combined with the Orbec mushroom farm tour, just 8.5km away.

Rates: 6€; 12€ for the 2 sites.

Contact: TEL 0033(0)6 11 86 87 80
lechampionondorbec@gmail.com

THE ORBEC MUSHROOM FARM

This mushroom farm is one of the last in Normandy to grow mushrooms in a natural cave. The visit offers you an insight into the growing methods of three different mushrooms (oyster mushrooms, common mushrooms and shiitake), together with a natural area shaped by man and that is also part of local history. This visit can be combined with the cress farm tour. Visit lasts 1 hour 15 minutes.

Rates: 6€; 12€ for the 2 sites.

MARITIME ARCHITECTURE AND HERITAGE INTERPRETATION CENTRE

Located in Honfleur, its role is to offer visitors the keys for them to fully grasp architectural vestiges, to offer an insight into the harbour - its evolution, history, challenges, people and activities. Permanent and temporary exhibitions, workshops, encounters and conferences are on the agenda. The interpretation trail starts in the Lieutenance and continues outdoors to incite visitors to discover other points of interest in the town and throughout the Pays d'Auge. Around 12 visitors every 15 minutes are permitted.

Reopening scheduled for the spring of 2022.

SAINT-AUBIN-SUR-MER AND THE GREAT SEA BATHING VOGUE

From the very origins of the village to the coastal holiday residence boom, discover the many changes made to the casino, the resort's fine seafront villas and all the ingredients and activities that enlivened the small town and its inhabitants from the 9th to the 20th century. Tour accessible to physically impaired visitors.

A HARBOUR, AN ISLAND, OYSTERS: A STORY OF COURSEULLES

An insight into the history of the harbour, its evolution and its love story with oyster farming. Due to the few slopes it covers, this tour requires the presence of natural helpers.

Accessible to physically impaired visitors.

Visits from the 2nd quarter of 2022.

Both visits last 2 hours. Exclusively by prior booking. Limited to 12 participants.

So, what if local history was right there, at your fingertips? These 2 visits are also available with audio-description for blind or visually impaired visitors thanks to swell form tactile supports.

Limited to 10 participants. Rate: 3€.

Parks and gardens

Set off and (re)discover the countless parks and gardens scattered throughout Calvados. Succumb to the fragrant and colourful charms of the many flowers along your way! A label of excellence has been awarded to some of these gardens.

The following have been distinguished as 'Remarkable Garden', thanks to their cultural, aesthetic, historic and/or botanic interest.

JARDINS DU CHATEAU DE VENDEVRE

The Château de Vendevre is quite remarkable thanks to its unique water gardens inspired by 18th-century pleasure gardens. Formal and landscaped gardens, kitchen garden and astonishing 'surprise' water gardens combine to form the castle setting.

Questions for Claire Lesourd, President of the Regional Federation of Guides in Normandy

What is the Federation of Guides in Normandy?

The Federation of Guides in Normandy is 30 years old. It is the only professional association of tour guides in the region. Over a hundred members guide you through Normandy's 5 departments and speak... 11 different languages!

So what is a tour like with one of these guides?

'Genuine experts on their region, they share with their clients, be they individuals or groups, their love of Normandy, its history and its heritage. They take you not only on 'classical' tours, but also on innovative visits: storytelling tours, recreational, hikes, or even meditative, sophrology or sensory tours!'

You will find all the professional guides from the Federation of Guides in Normandy on normandyguides.com

AUTHENTIC NORMANDY TOURISM LISIEUX AGGLOMERATION

The Normandy of postcards reflects the idyllic landscapes of Pays d'Auge. Legions of blossoming apple trees adorn the land in springtime, and pour their nectar into our ciders and calvados. Quiet little paths criss-cross the countryside, along which you may suddenly come across a stud farm with racehorses of international renown. Finally, there is Lisieux, a famous pilgrimage site dedicated to the memory of St. Thérèse of Lisieux, where hundreds gather to pray.

BAYEUX - BESSIN

In western Calvados, the Bessin area boasts an international reputation - that of the thousands of soldiers who set foot on these lands after the D-Day Landings in 1944. Bayeux, the area's capital, has nevertheless preserved striking heritage over its twenty centuries of history, and can truly pride itself in its wild and romantic landscapes, its magnificent castles and thousand-year-old tapestry.

CAEN LA MER - NORMANDIE

Caen, in the very heart of Calvados, the city of a thousand lives! The city that watched William the Conqueror grow up, a thousand years ago, and that also played a major role in restoring Peace in Europe as from 1944. The many vestiges of this eventful past now blend in perfect harmony with this lively and modern town that is full of surprises and is well worth a detour.

HONFLEUR

You'll have no trouble imagining Honfleur in the Middle Ages: this fine, 1,000 year-old city has preserved striking vestiges of its illustrious past. Its wooden church, with separate spire. Unique in France! Its marina, in the very heart of the town, lined with narrow and colourful terraced buildings. A marvel for photographers! One thing is sure: Honfleur is 'a harbour like no other'!

ISIGNY-OMAHA INTERCOM

If there is one area that can truly pride itself in its preserved seafront and enchanting inland area, it is the land of Isigny-Omaha! From its famous D-Day Landing beach to the Cotentin and Bessin marshes or the Cerisy Forest, it is an area steeped in history and abounding with natural treasures, offering a preserved living environment, a host of outdoor pleasures and renowned quality country fare.

NORMANDIE CABOURG PAYS D'AUGE

Cabourg is home to the quintessentially romantic beach. For you to fully appreciate all its qualities, you really need to take a late afternoon stroll along the beach, from where you can admire the sumptuous Belle Époque villas that line the foreshore. It is also a highly colourful seaside resort: Cabourg is rightly proud to be part of the Côte Fleurie coast!

PAYS DE FALAISE

Falaise without its castle is like the sea without the waves! And whilst William the Conqueror's birthplace and childhood home looms above the surrounding valley, it is not the only monument to cast its gaze over the medieval town. Nearby, in the town centre square, a striking statue of William also relentlessly admires the region's wild and verdant relief, there where he used to roam.

PAYS DE VIRE / COLLINES DE NORMANDIE

Enter Calvados' wild side, that of its hollow valleys and traditional know-how, passed on from generation to generation. In the southwesterly corner of Calvados, a natural playground for outdoor sports awaits you, some of the charms of which demand a little effort. Its gateway, Villers-Bocage, is steeped in history. Further south, Vire, the capital of the Normandy bocage, keeps watch over the surrounding area from its 13th century gate clock.

SUISSE NORMANDE

Its name is evocative of the green valleys and the vast natural decors that swathe this region, where the meanders of the Orne offer the panoramas all their splendour. It's no surprise that lovers of nature and the great outdoors have chosen the landscapes around Thury-Harcourt and Clécy to reunite their hiking, mountain biking, paragliding and canoeing activities.

TERRE D'AUGE

Here, the river gently meanders, and all around legends are whispered through the ages: such is the essence of the Pays d'Auge that transpires through this mosaic-like land. On the banks of the sloping green pastures, authentic Beaumont-en-Auge is a fine example: its colourful half-timbered houses offer the village a timeless atmosphere. Visiting Pont-l'Évêque, is like travelling through a town from field to field, crossing bridges, strolling through gardens, following the river banks, and being surprised along your way, by a museum, an exhibition, a detail.

TERRES DE NACRE

The Côte de Nacre coast stretches from the banks of the Orne to Courseulles-sur-Mer and you'll be spoilt for choice to find the whitest sandiest beach just for you. On June 1944, this sector, codenamed 'Sword' and Juno', saw the British, French and Canadian troops land on D-Day.

TERRITOIRE DE DEAUVILLE

They call Deauville a high society destination. Yet, it is simply a resort that shines like the many stars it welcomes. From its seafront promenade (and its famous 'Planches' boardwalk), its immense sandy beach and the fine stylish establishments that run along its shores, one could almost forget that it is also one of the leading meeting places for horse lovers, offering an essential link between the seafront and the Pays d'Auge countryside.

TROUVILLE-SUR-MER

The Belle Époque charm and narrow streets of Deauville's 'twin sister' seem to conceal some well-kept secret... And as you walk along its central avenue, amidst its many fine restaurants, you can admire the hundred-year-old casino in the distance, and the splendid Cures Marines hotel and spa that stands opposite the vast sandy beach, so popular among visitors who appreciate wide, open spaces.
